

Historic Hacienda de la Canoa

Raúl M. Grijalva
Canoa Ranch
Conservation Park

Pima County
Natural Resources, Parks
and Recreation

Canoa Ranch is a microcosm of the history of our land and our people and the story of this special place encapsulates many of the narratives of Southern Arizona.

- 1995 Fairfield Homes purchases Canoa Ranch for development
- 1997 Pima County voters approve $2 million in bond funds to purchase Canoa Ranch with another $200,000 for rehabilitation
- 1997 Pima County Board of Supervisors purchases 4,800 acres for $6.6 million
- 2004 Voters approve an additional $3 million
- 2007 Phases I – III of rehabilitation completed
- 2013 Remaining bond funds used for Phase IV construction

2006–2007

Phases I–III of Master Plan
Stabilization of the Buildings

June 2012– February 2013

Phase IV of Master Plan
Rehabilitation and Construction

Retaque Corrals

Perhaps the best preserved example in the Southwest

Foreman's Home Before Rehabilitation

Foreman's Home After Rehabilitation

Grain Room and Blacksmith Shop Before Rehabilitation

Grain Room and Blacksmith Shop After Rehabilitation

Grijalva Home Before Rehabilitation

Grijalva Home After Rehabilitation

Howell Manning Jr. Residence During Rehabilitation

Howell Manning Jr. Residence After Rehabilitation

Garage - Restroom Before Adaptive Reuse

Garage - Restroom After Adaptive Reuse

Howell Manning Jr. House
Landscape in the 1920s

Land Stewardship

Protect

- Undeveloped land/connections
- Tributary washes and habitats
- Archaeological resources

Preserve

- Native habitat diversity
- Watershed - trincheras

Former agricultural land

- Remove invasive species
- Test alternative land
- Restoration strategies

Access - Limited activity

- No new trails
- Special event hikes/trail rides

Canoa Lake Restoration

Canoa Lake
Landscape in the 1940s

Boy and Steer in Yard

Vegetation along Canal

Vegetation along Canal

Landscaping around Original Owner's Home

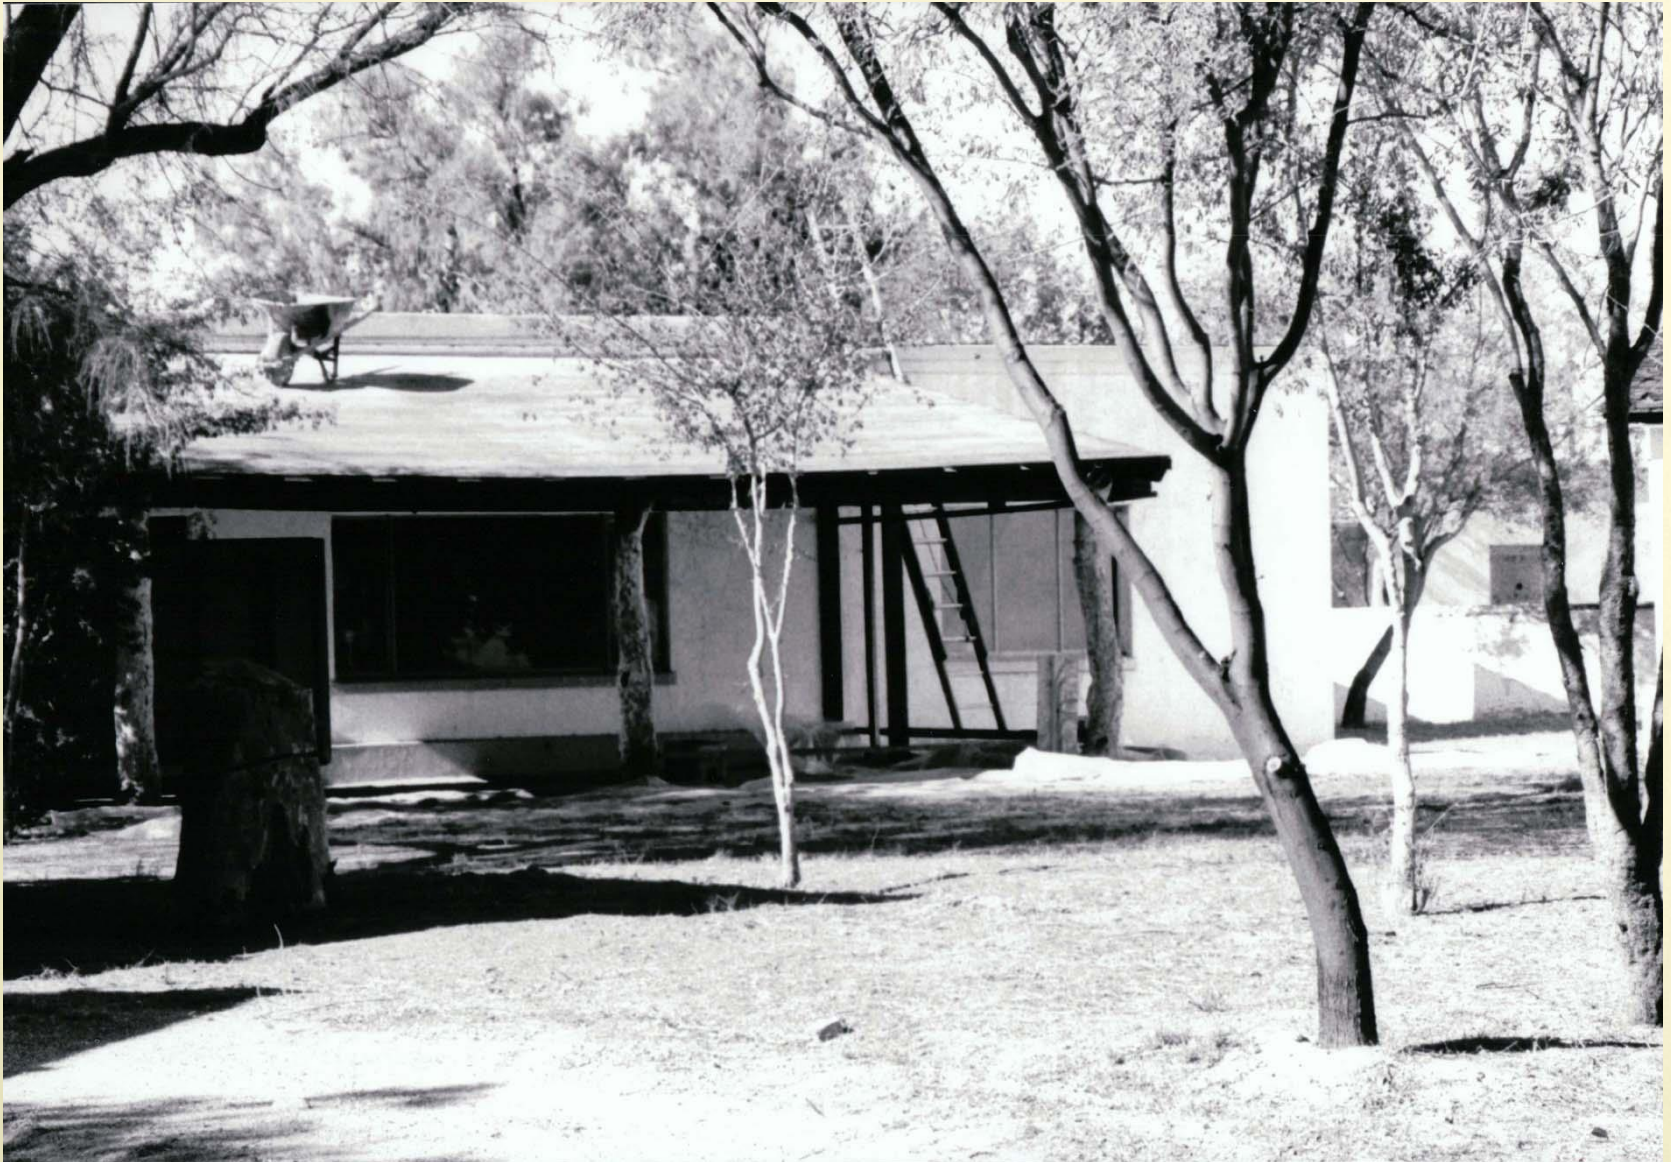

Early View of Foreman's Home

Canoa Hog Farm 1907

Early View of Guest House

Garden in front of Grijalva House

Cattle Drive in Yard

Cut Flowers

Plantings in Front of Jr.'s Home (John Gaylor on Right)

Frances Gaylor and Calf in Yard

Children in Front of Grijalva House

Rear Entry of Howell Sr.'s Home

Snow and Grijalva House

Hedge at Howell Manning Jr.'s Home

Inside Manning Jr. House

Inside Manning Jr. House

Lake Dock

Canoa Lake

Canoa Lake

Canoa Lake

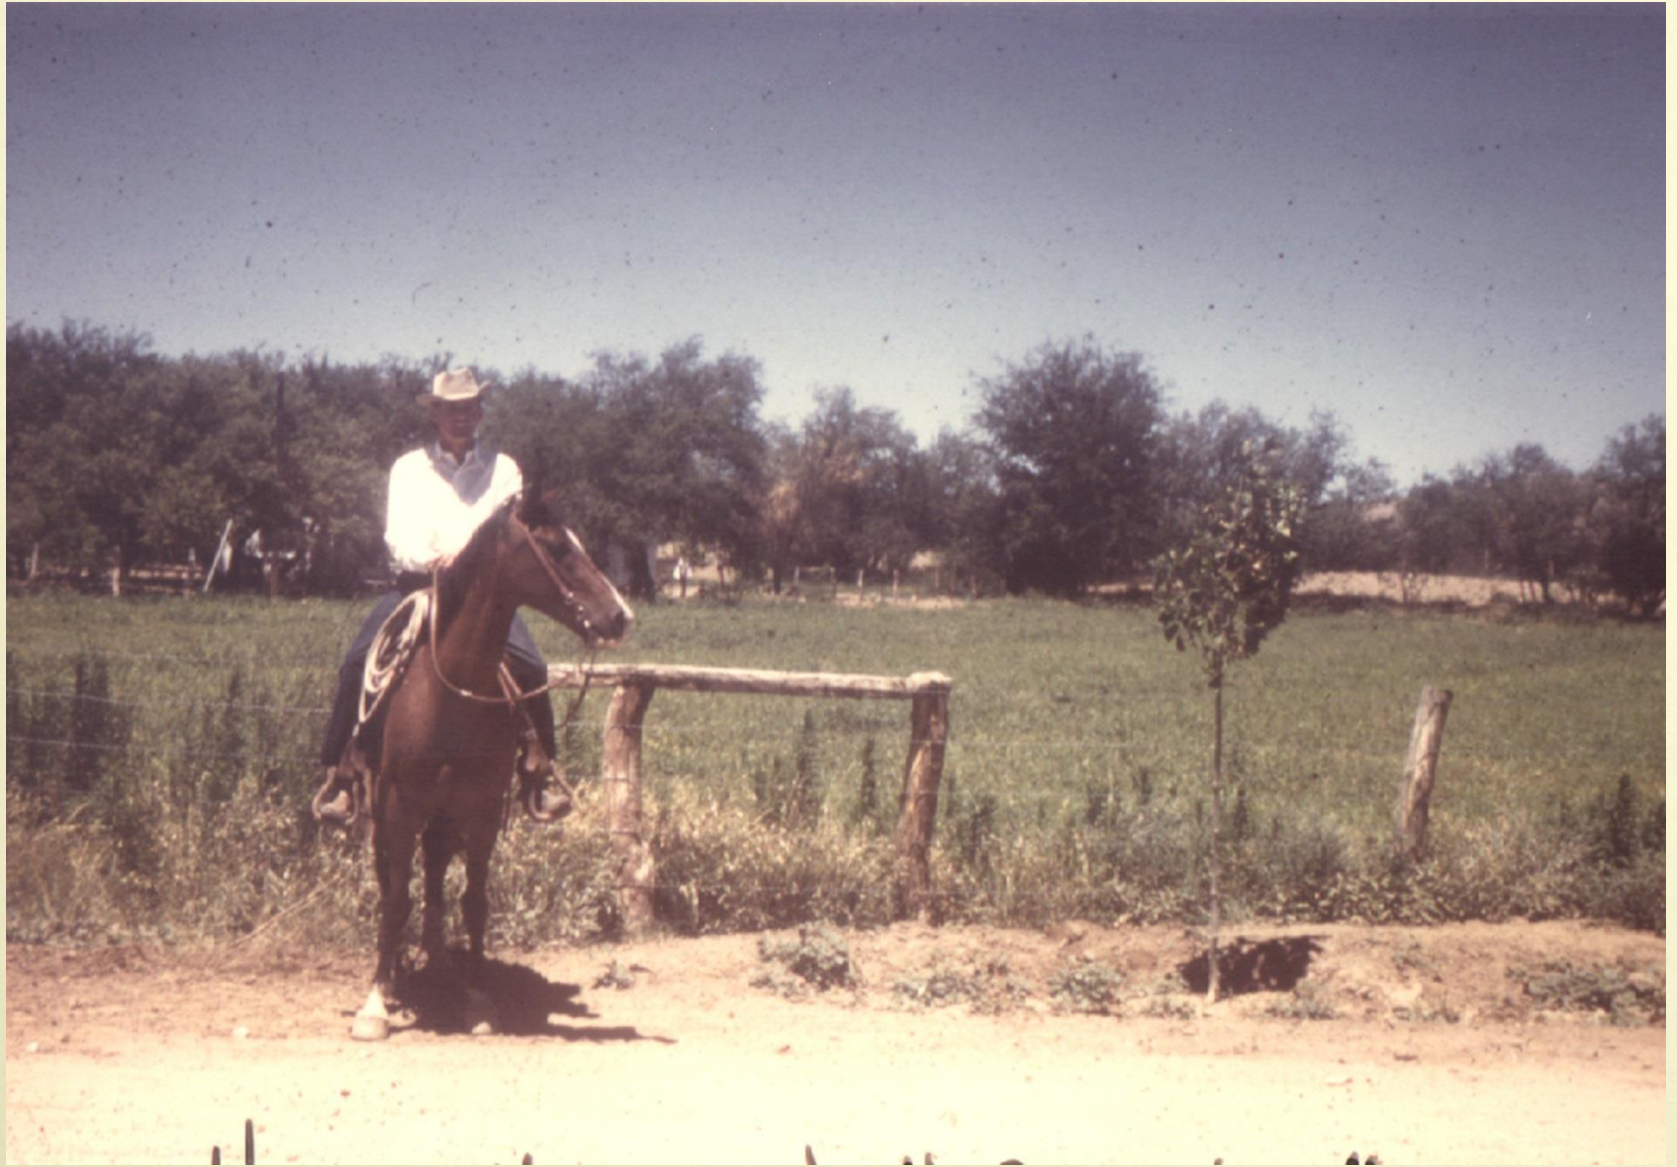

Canoa Lake

Potted Plant

Pasture and Tree Row

Turf, Trees, and Plants at Jr.'s Home

Living Room of Manning Jr. House

Fireplace in Manning Jr. House

Entry Road to Canoa Ranch

Tree in Front of Salcido Home and Guest House

Corrals

Santa Rita Mountains from Sr.'s Home

Howell Manning Jr Home in the 1920s

Thank You Green Valley Garden Club!

Your work, expertise, and talent are greatly appreciated and have made a wonderful improvement in the appearance of Historic Hacienda de la Canoa.

We look forward to working together with you to improve visitors' experience when they come to the ranch.

Please plan to visit

Hacienda de la Canoa is currently open on Tuesdays and Saturdays for volunteer-led guided tours and self-guided walking tours.

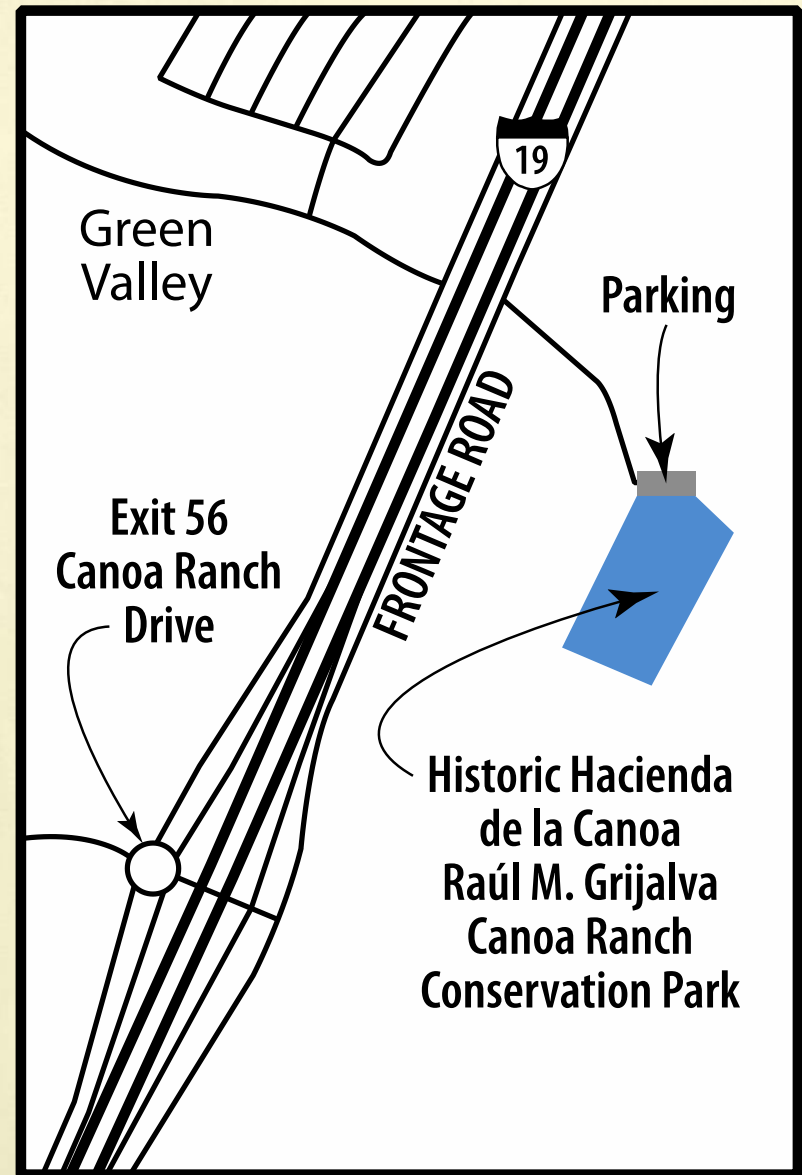

Arrangements can also be made for tours for special groups.

Call: 520-877-6004

Or

Email:

CanoaRanch@pima.gov

Pima County
Natural Resources, Parks
and Recreation